

HORSE COUNTRY

KENTUCKY

Something old/ Something new. Something borrowed. Something blue grass.

THURSDAY

GODOLPHIN AT JONABELL, HOME OF THE DARLEY STALLIONS 2:30-4:00 pm

Godolphin is the global thoroughbred breeding and racing operation owned by His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice President and Prime Minister of the United Arab Emirates and Ruler of Dubai. If that isn't regal enough, the farm is home to three Kentucky Derby winners and the tour includes a visit to the trophy room.

DINNER- LOCKBOX RESTAURANT

Round out your day dining at Lockbox restaurant, located in 21c Museum Hotel. Delicious food and drinks, a historic building on Main St in Lexington, and a rotating gallery of modern art.

FRIDAY

LUNCH- WALLACE STATION

Wind through Horse Country to the most popular of Ouita Michel's family of restaurants, Wallace Station, a scenic stop for lunch in the Bluegrass. Known for locally sourced ingredients, the Wallace Station menu serves up homemade sandwiches, soups, salads and delicious treats.

TOUR PIN OAK STUD 1:00-2:00 pm

Josephine Abercrombie's private Thoroughbred nursery where six decades of breeding, raising and racing her own stock have produced over 100 stakes winners to date. The tour winds through the 920-acre property, home to a top broodmare band of stakes-winning and stakes-producing mares

CASTLE AND KEY DISTILLERY 2:30 pm

Inspired by their distillery site's legacy of trailblazing, their founders dreamt up something big: to create an immersive distillery experience by combining thoughtfully made spirits with a property where discerning tastemakers could experience history in motion.
